Our advice is effective

Problems don't happen in isolation and can have a severe consequences. Solving them stops these situations escalating.

This is Cliff

Cliff is a widower in his eighties and suffers with a number of long term health conditions.

Cliff had his home repossessed in 1995 with a mortgage shortfall of approx. £30,000. He had been making monthly payments of £40 per month, but struggled to maintain this. Cliff approached Citizens Advice Exeter for help.

Cliff met with our adviser, Janet, and explained the difficult situation he had found himself in. Janet collated medical evidence on the conditions Cliff was suffering with. This was then included in letters written to the mortgage company and the secondary mortgage company whom the debt had been passed to.

After some further correspondence between Janet and the companies concerned, it was agreed that the remaining debt of £27,905 would be written off.

This was a huge relief and a weight lifted for Cliff.

Why fixing problems matters

Life is complicated. Sometimes people encounter challenges and problems that they don't know how to deal with, and they need help to overcome.

9 in 10 of our clients said their problem affected their lives, including causing anxiety and financial difficulty

2 in 3 say they had difficulty knowing who to contact or how systems work before advice

4 in 5 experienced a shock or life event before their problem

“The service I received has been invaluable! The Adviser I dealt with was understanding of my needs and quickly resolved my issues.”

Our value to society

For every £1 invested in our service in 2023/24, we generated:

It's impossible to put a financial value on everything we do – but where we can, we have. We've used a Treasury-approved model to do this.

From our robust management information, we've also separately considered the financial benefits to the people we help.

Our value to this community

Our savings to the public purse include:

£140,052 saved by local government, through reducing homelessness

Maximising the income for those we help prevents more costly intervention. This helps reduce financial difficulty, promotes inclusion and benefits the economy.

This is only one fraction of our true value. We also:

- help clients negotiate local processes, such as welfare reform changes
- help local authority rent and council tax arrears to be rescheduled, and reduce the associated administrative costs

Citizens Advice Exeter helps people find a way forward.

We provide free, confidential and independent advice to help people overcome their problems. We are a voice for our clients and consumers on the issues that matter to them.

We value diversity, champion equality, and challenge discrimination and harassment.

We're here for everyone.
